DETAILED ACTION

Examiner acknowledges receipt of the preliminary amendment on 8/10/04.
According to the amendment, and claims 1-6 are pending in the application.

Priority

1. Acknowledgment is made of applicant's claim for foreign priority based on an application filed in 2002-335610 on 11/19/02. It is noted, however, that applicant has not filed a certified copy of the 2002-335610 application as required by 35 U.S.C. 119(b).

Specification

2. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-4 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kodachi et al (EP 1054368).

Claims 1, 2 and 6: Kodachi discloses a gaming machine comprising game result display means 63L, 63C, 63R (Fig. 1) for displaying a game result; beneficial state generating means 200 (Fig. 3) for generating a beneficial state for a player when a specific game result is displayed on the game result display means (abstract; col. 34, lines 33-35); and demonstration display control means 200, 304 (Fig. 3) for controlling the game result display means (col. 7, lines 17-20); internal winning combination determination means for determining an internal winning combination (paragraph 0074); and game result display control means for controlling the game result display means based on a determined result by the internal winning combination determination means (paragraph 0076); the demonstration display control means controls the game result display means based on information concerning with the internal winning combination included in the information concerning with the game (paragraphs 0077 and 0083).

Claim 3: Kodachi discloses that the demonstration display control means does not control the game result display means when the information concerning with the internal winning combination indicates that a specific winning combination is the internal winning combination (paragraph 0124).

Claim 4: Kodachi discloses controlling the game result display means for displaying a specific demonstration display mode (paragraphs 0083 and 0087).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kodachi et al (EP 1054368) in view of Loose et al (US 6,517,433).

Claim 5: Loose discloses including first display means and second display means as claimed (Figs. 2a and 2b). It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to include the first display and the second display as taught by Loose in the gaming machine of Kodachi in order to facilitate providing game information to the player.
